Juno Drops a Foot of Snow & Bullies of the Blizzard in Woonsocket & Neigh- boring Towns

Juno the blizzard of 2015 slammed Rhode Island. Some Seven Hills managers slammed the employees during the blizzard adding insult to injury. There have been complaints of managers mistreating employees and some reports of threats to discipline employees if they didn't plow their way to work on Tuesday and Wednesday during the blizzard. One manager told an employee to walk to work. Shame on you Seven Hills of Rhode Island. Just what we need a bully during a blizzard.

The union will thoroughly investigate complaints from employees and file appropriate grievances. Please contact one of the officers listed above if you want the union to file a grievance for you or you want to discuss the behavior of the bullies of Seven Hills Rhode Island.
